

LEARN
MODERN SQUARE DANCING
with the
ROSETOWN RAMBLERS
Portland's LGBTQ square dance club
Celebrating 33 years of dance, fun, friendship, and frolics

- Who: You! We welcome singles and couples. No prior dance experience is required—we start from the beginning. If you do not have a dance partner, we will find one for you!
- What: Modern square dancing. Over the course of 15 weeks, you will learn 68 square dance calls, which will allow you to dance anywhere in the world. We dance to a variety of music styles.
- Where: Ankeny Street Studio, 975 SE Sandy Blvd., Portland
Information available at <http://ankenystreetstudio.com/>
- When: Wednesday evenings, 7-9 p.m., starting September 14, 2016.
- Why: To meet new people, have fun, exercise your body and your brain, and be part of a wonderful community.
- How: Come to the Ankeny Street Studio on September 14 at 7 p.m. ready to dance. We do not have a dress code—wear whatever makes you comfortable.
- Cost: Our first two lessons—on September 14 and 21—are free and with no obligation to continue. We'll discuss the cost of lessons and what's included in your tuition on those evenings.

For more information about the Rosetown Ramblers, please visit our website at <http://www.rosetownramblers.com/>.

If you have questions, please send an email to info@rosetownramblers.com.

WE HOPE TO SEE YOU IN SEPTEMBER!!